

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. I hope that the many e-mails you will be getting regarding this issue will force you to make this media giant comply with election law and force it to detract its decision.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. I want you to know the thought that only a few people are controlling what we are allowed to hear/see is appalling. A democracy needs diversity of view points to function. Thank you for taking action in this pivotal issue.
